Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Harvey Lancaster's job has touched a thousand lives and made him many valued friends; he has lived a life that most can only dream of, and has done things most will never have a chance to experience; and,

WHEREAS, Harvey Lancaster, Custer State Park's senior ranger, has retired after 36 years of service which began on January 1, 1946, working in the timber, in park sawmills, as a carpenter and as a heavy equipment operator; later, as a park ranger, he became an integral part of the outdoor scene at the park; and,

WHEREAS, Harvey had enjoyed fishing the trout streams around the park area as a child, but as a park ranger, he made his mark by hunting; before the elk were hunted and buffalo sold at auctions, it was Harvey's job to harvest them and his experience made him a valuable source of information for hunters visiting the park:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby congratulate and commend for his 36 years of service to the Custer State Park.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-ninth Day of January, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Two

WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, GOVERNOR
